

CORRESPONDENCE (3)

HEIDI WOOD

I thought I had better write,
as I'm sure that you have arrived home by now.
Or I hope so.
I suppose you must have been exhausted.

How was the North Pole.
Or has something moved it?

Actually I saw a picture taken in March of the Moon,
and one in April.
The moon has certainly turned a new face to us.

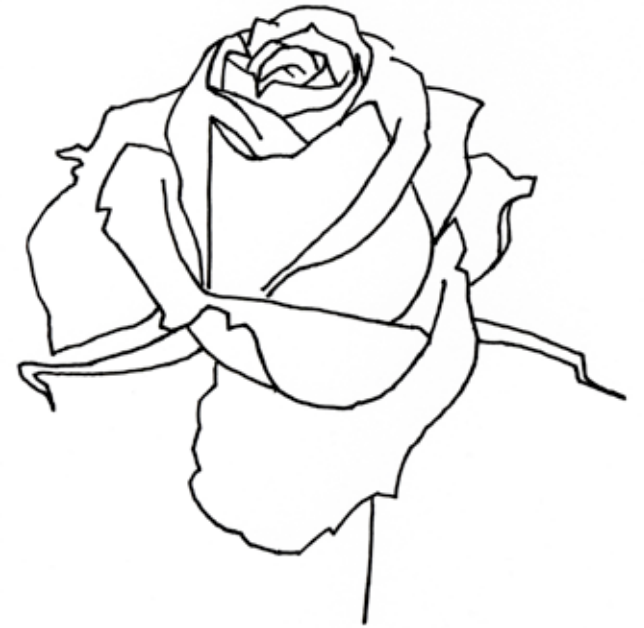

They said that the pole was heading for Canada,
and instead, it's now headed for England.
I think this all is very strange and unsettling.

But we must trust that Lord Jesus will save us.
From anything too bad if we ask for him to look after us all.

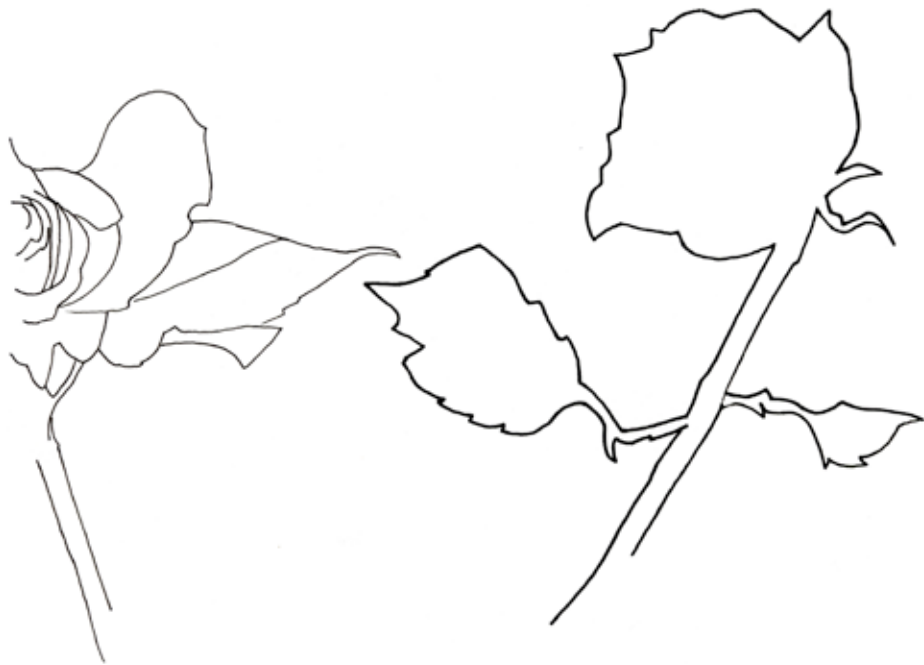

I had a good birthday, thank you,
and our friend Bonnie May came to tea.

I hope that you enjoyed your time with us, dear.
I was sorry it couldn't be longer,
but we loved having you home and wish you well
now you are back in your little house.

CORRESPONDENCE (3)

© Heidi Wood 2018